Re: Cowlitz County Expo Center – Grounds Host

Contact: Kathi Mattinen
360 577-3121

Cowlitz County, Washington is seeking a year-round grounds host for the Cowlitz County Expo Center located in Longview, Washington.

The successful candidate(s) will be responsible for monitoring the grounds activities during times when regular department staff is not present and contacting either county staff or the governing police agency when necessary and/or appropriate, opening and closing the grounds' exterior gates as directed by department staff.

This is a year-round volunteer position and no salary will be paid, but the successful applicant will be provided a free camp area in exchange for their service. The successful applicant must provide their own RV. Water, electrical power and garbage service will be provided, as well as a scheduled RV pumping service.

Applicants will undergo a thorough background check, including a criminal history check. If a couple is applying jointly, each person must fill out a separate application form and authorization to release information form.

The application review will consist of an evaluation of experience and training, skills and abilities, in particular, previous experience in a similar position. The successful applicant must be able to provide stable and consistent oversight of the grounds as scheduled by the department director.

Anyone interested in this opportunity should contact Kathi Mattinen, 1900 7th Avenue, Longview, Washington, 360 577-3121, mattinenk@co.cowlitz.wa.us, or refer to our website www.thecenterofthenorthwest.com.
